Lancaster County Treasurer Encourages Use of Online Services

Lincoln, NE – March 12, 2020 – Lancaster County Treasurer Rachel Garver encourages Lancaster County taxpayers to utilize online services. Due to health and safety concerns related to COVID-19, Lancaster County Treasurer, Rachel Garver reminds taxpayers that they can pay their property taxes online at: <https://www.lancaster.ne.gov/Treasurer>.

Most motor vehicle transactions can also be done online at the State DMV website that can be accessed at the above County Treasurer's website. Please allow 5-7 business days for the receipt of the renewal registration and license plates and/or stickers that will be mailed to you. If residents do not have computer access, they can pay their taxes through the mail.

For property taxes please include to tax coupon and check to:

Lancaster County Treasurer
555 S. 10th
Lincoln, NE 68508

For motor vehicle registrations please include a copy of your insurance card and your renewal notice or current registration document.
