INTRODUCTION TO THE 7 HABITS OF HIGHLY EFFECTIVE PEOPLE

Presented by:
Lisa Kaslon and Lauren Madsen

Competency Bucket: Owning Your Leadership Identity

Lisa Kaslon

Lisa Kaslon is the Professional Development Coordinator for Nebraska Extension. She has been in the role since January. Lisa has been with Extension for 22 years, in a variety of roles.

She has a BA in English Education, an MS in Leadership Education and is currently working on her PhD in Human Sciences with an emphasis on Leadership Development.

She has been a part of the UNL Extension staff development team that provides professional development opportunities for over 15 years, which led her to her current role. She is certified as a facilitator for the 7 Habits of Highly Effective People, the 7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens, the 5 Choices of Extraordinary Productivity, The Trust Edge Experience, Talent Dynamics and Real Colors.

Lisa is married to Keith and has two sons.

Lauren Madsen

Lauren Madsen is the Director of Business Operations for the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources (IANR) at the University of Nebraska - Lincoln (UNL). She has been in the role for 18 months, with IANR since 2009, and with UNL since 2006.

She has a BS in Accounting and a Masters of Professional Accountancy. Prior to working at UNL, Lauren was an auditor with KPMG.

In 2016, Lauren added a new role by joining the UNL Extension staff development team as a facilitator of the 7 Habits of Highly Effective People, which she enjoys immensely as it allows her to regularly renew herself in the Habits in order to more effectively live the Habits herself.

Lauren is married and has 3 children.

OBJECTIVES:

- HAVE A GREATER SENSE OF ACCOUNTABILITY AND COMMITMENT
- LEARN TO FOCUS ON KEY PRIORITIES AND IMPROVE PRODUCTIVITY
